Recognition of Prior Learning/Current Competencies

Each student who has enrolled in a course/unit is able to apply for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL). RPL takes into account a student's background and experience that may be relevant to the course. If a student already possesses the required knowledge then they may be given credit for part or all of a competency. You will be required to support your claim for RPL with evidence this may be in the form of certificates or statements from other training, practical demonstration, or satisfactory completion of an assessment. There is a fee involved in assessing RPL.

Client Selection

Yarnteen College is an indigenous community training organisation that provides accredited training for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, their family members and the general public. Our selection criterion is based around these principles. NOTE: Selected courses are funded specifically for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Welfare and guidance services

Yarnteen College is committed to providing clients with support, advice and assistance while training. To achieve this and to ensure the quality delivery of training and education, Yarnteen College provides;

- Education and Career Counselling
- Assistance when applying for RPL and RCC
- Grievance /conflict resolution
- Stress management
- Access and equity issues
- Client welfare and support

Language Literacy and Numeracy services

Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) Support is available to provide clients with advice and support services in the provision of language, literacy and numeracy assessment services. Clients needing LL&N support are identified at induction. Our trainers are skilled in language learning and teaching and are able to offer clients case by case support in this area. You as a learner are encouraged to openly identify any LL&N needs to staff or trainers prior to learning. This will enable us to assist you in making the most of your training.

Client complaint and grievance procedures

Yarnteen College is committed to delivering quality education and training and recognises that differences and grievances can arise from time to time. The quick settlement of these matters is in the best interest of all parties concerned. If you are experiencing any difficulties during your program of study, do not hesitate to discuss your concerns with your trainer, a Yarnteen College staff member or management. If you need further assistance in resolving the matter you may acquire the appropriate paperwork for formal lodgment of the grievance through Yarnteen College administration.

Disciplinary action

Yarnteen College's goal is to create a fair and efficient environment for all students and therefore expects students to follow all policies and procedures outlined in our Student handbook. Should any student act with disregard to any of Yarnteen College's policies and procedures, it may be necessary for management to take disciplinary action.
